

Randi C. Eldevik

April 25, 1957 – March 19, 2022

Randi C. Eldevik, 64, was born on April 25, 1957, in Fosston, MN, to Carole and Karl Eldevik, and passed away in Tulsa, OK on March 19, 2022. She graduated from Wadena High School after which she attended the University of Minnesota. She earned the PhD in comparative literature from the Harvard University. Randi moved to Stillwater, OK, in 1986 where she was a faculty member in the English Department at Oklahoma State University. Her specialties included medieval literature and historical linguistics. She enjoyed opera, cuisine, movies, language, and travel. Randi was preceded in death by her father. Survivors include her mother, her son, Henry Hartmann, former spouse, Charles Hartmann, and her brother, Wayne.