Announcements

Monday Night Dinner Program on November 4

The program speaker for the Monday, November 4, Emeriti Dinner will be Coach Josh Holliday. He will share information about the 2020 OSU baseball season and the new O'Brate Stadium. Go Pokes!

Technology Group Meeting on November 13

On November 13, the Technology Group will meet at 1:30 in the ITLE Building. The topic of this month's program is "Online Banking and Bill Paying—Secure?"

Making the Most of Retirement on November 20

On November 20, Making the Most of Retirement will meet at 1:30 at the Stillwater Public Library. The program is a presentation by Dr. Blayne Mayfield, and his topic is "Cutting the Cord: Alternatives to Cable Television."

Emeriti Scholarship Recipients Honored at Monday Night Dinner on October 7

At the October 7 Monday Night Dinner, the OSU Emeriti Association awarded $1000 scholarships to two undergraduate students attending Oklahoma State University. President Sharon Nivens made the presentations. The Oklahoma State University McCollom Emeriti Scholarship was presented to Ryan Hollands, Edmond, a senior majoring in Economics, Political Science, and Spanish. The Oklahoma State University Emeriti Scholarship was presented to Halie Schovanec, Garber, a junior majoring in Agricultural Communications. The annual scholarships are funded from an endowment at the OSU Foundation made possible through donations from Emeriti members and a generous gift from Kathryn McCollom, widow of one of the founding members of the OSU Emeriti Association.

Information About Upcoming Emeriti Association Trips

Cathy Shuffield, the Tours and Travel Chairperson for the Emeriti Association, has announced two upcoming trips for members of the Emeriti Association.

On November 7, a bus trip is available that begins in Tulsa, travels to Stillwater, and goes on to Norman for a tour of the National Weather Center. Reservations can be made up to a day or two before the tour by calling Cathy at (405) 744-8031 and providing a credit card number so she can complete the registration form.

The second trip will be held on December 15 with a bus trip to Plano, TX, where Emeriti Association members will be able to attend "The Gift of Christmas" held at the Prestonwood Baptist Church.
