Donald Rose, 80, passed away on July 29, 2016, in Yukon, OK. He was born on October 28, 1935, in Cedar Rapids, IA. Donald and his wife, Susanne Sanford, were married for 60 years, and they have five children. Donald earned a bachelor’s and master’s degree in institution and restaurant management from Iowa State University, and he served as a Registered Dietician at several locations include Integris Baptist Hospital in Oklahoma City. He was also a designer of commercial and institution kitchens. Donald also taught at several universities include Iowa State, Central Missouri State University at Warrensburg, University of Missouri at Columbia, and Oklahoma State. Donald is survived by his five children: Pamela (Larry) Stephens, David Rose, Donalee Cook, Bernadine Webber, and Paul (Tara) Rose. He is also survived by five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.