Dorothy A. Goss, 78, passed away June 21, 2016, in Stillwater, Oklahoma. She was born on September 21, 1937, in Fulton, County, Indiana, to Herschel and Helen Goss. She attended Fulton High School. Dottie received her bachelor’s degree from Purdue University, her master’s degree from the University of Illinois, and her Ph.D. from Cornell University. Prior to working at Oklahoma State University, she worked at the University of Illinois and the University of Minnesota. During her time at Oklahoma State, she received a number of honors for the quality of her work. She was predeceased by her parents, her sister Louise Morrill and her brother-in-law Mark Williams. She is survived by her sister Barbara (Granville) Hattery, four nieces and nephews, as well as by several great and great great nieces and nephews.