Norma L. Koeppe, 90, died on Saturday, June 30, 2012 in Stillwater. After college, she taught 1st and 3rd grades. In 1947, Norma married her classmate from Hope College, Roger Erdman Koeppe. In 1959 OSU's Biochemistry Department beckoned them to Stillwater, Oklahoma and this became home. She dedicated her talents to her family, friends and community. She worked for years managing her neighborhood polling location on election days, became the bookkeeper for Murphy's Department Store, and gave her support financially and as an audience member at the Town & Gown Theatre, Tulsa Opera, Allied Arts, OSU Theatre and many, many more cultural events. She served as President of Lahoma on OSU's campus from 1970-71 and as First Lady of the Department of Bioche