TECHNOLOGY INTEREST GROUP

The Emeriti Technology Interest Group will meet at 1:30pm, Wednesday, November 13 in Room 106A of the Classroom Building. Our main topic will be E Readers such as Kindle, Nook, etc. As usual, we will also have time to address any issues our group has with our home computers or other digital equipment/software. Call Glade Presnal (377-6388) for more information.

CONGRATUATIONS!

Baker Bokorney and JoAnn Seamans were honored at the recent Homecoming Luncheon for the College of Human Sciences with the Legacy Award. This award is to recognize former faculty and staff for their continued loyal and true dedication to the College of Human Sciences.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

The OSU Shotgun Sports Club is looking for someone to help oversee their practice sessions. The practice sessions are usually Wednesday from 3-6 and Sunday 2-5. The club would provide the individual with membership to the local gun club and cover certification fees. The club is not opposed to paying a small stipend for this assistance. If interested please contact Nathan Walker at 744-6830 or nathan.walker@okstate.edu.

IN MEMORY

Ralph Lloyd Hamilton, 84, died on Tuesday, Oct. 8, 2013, in Tulsa. Ralph was born on Nov. 21, 1928, in Hillsboro, Ohio. He received a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics from Ohio State University, a master's degree in agricultural journalism from the University of Wisconsin and a doctorate in mass communication, also from the University of Wisconsin. He and his family moved to Stillwater in 1973 where he assumed the role of director of public relations at Oklahoma State University. Ralph was a member of AAACE, Sigma Delta Chi, Alpha Zeta, Gamma Sigma Delta, the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, Epsilon Sigma Phi and the Stillwater Lions Club. He was also on the board of directors for Friends of the Oklahoma Museum of Higher Education. He retired from OSU after 17 years as director for information and publication services, and three years in the Office of the Vice President for University Relations and Public Affairs.
