IN MEMORY

Hans R. Bilger, 78, passed away on Wednesday, May 15, 2013, at the UW Hospital in Madison, Wisconsin. Hans was born in Singen, in southern Germany. He married Edeltraut Gönner, his classmate of nine years, in 1958. Three years later, he received a PhD in physics from the University of Basel, Switzerland. In the fall of 1963, he joined Oklahoma State University's Department of Electrical Engineering, beginning a 34-year career at OSU. Hans's scientific interests focused on noise and optics, and in the 1980s he was inspired to build large ring lasers that could detect subtle movement with high precision and be used to detect gravitational waves. Hans went on to design a 16m ring laser that was built in Wettzell, Germany used to measure the earth's rotation.

Charlie Lou Rouse of Stillwater passed away on June 9, 2013. Charlie Lou was born Sept. 9, 1924. She earned a B.A. from East Central Oklahoma before she went on to earn a master's degree in secondary education from the University of Oklahoma and a library certification from O.S.U. During the 22 years she worked for Stillwater Public Schools, she served as president of the Stillwater Education Association and was named Teacher of the Year. In 2006, she was honored as a "Library Legend" at an Oklahoma Centennial Celebration sponsored by the Oklahoma Capitol Complex and Centennial Commemoration Commission. Charlie Lou married Roscoe Rouse, Jr. in 1945 in Ada. They were married nearly 68 years. He shared her love of libraries and retired as the Dean of Library Services at O.S.U.

Andrew W. Monlux, retired Regents Professor of Veterinary Pathology at Oklahoma State University, passed away on July 4, 2013. He was born in Algona, Iowa, in 1920. He was graduated from Algona High School in 1937 and received a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine from Iowa State University in 1942. He married Jean Hauser on Aug. 19, 1950. The marriage lasted 55 years until Mrs. Monlux's passing. In 1956, he accepted an appointment as Professor and Head of Veterinary Pathology at Oklahoma State University. In 1958, a graduate program in Veterinary Pathology was approved that allowed the college to be fully accredited by the American Veterinary Medical Association. He and his brother William revised Runnells' Principles of Veterinary Pathology in 1965. In 1972, he became a Regents Professor of Pathology and was awarded a cooperative grant from the National Institute of Health in which he classified and published research on dog and cat tumors collected in the Greater Tulsa area.

TECHNOLOGY INTEREST GROUP

LARRY SHELL IS RETIRING, OCTOBER 31

Larry has been a cornerstone supporter for the OSU Emeriti Association. Because of his recognition of the importance of the Emeriti Association to OSU, the connection to the Alumni Center was established with the award of a suite and privileges to use the facilities. On October 5th, alumni, friends and families are invited to a reception at the Alumni Center after the pep rally to honor Larry. The Emeriti Association will also invite Larry and Christy to a MND to recognize and honor his dedication and service. Let's all give Larry a great big THANK YOU.
