IN MEMORY

Marjorie Brown Tewell, passed away Friday, Jan. 24, 2014. She was born Sept. 24, 1924, in Meridian, Miss. A devoted teacher, she earned her bachelor's degree from University of Southern Mississippi and her master's degree from Oklahoma State University. Her love of people, made her a happy, young-at-heart 89-year old! She and her husband, Dr. Fred Tewell, were married July 26, 1945 until he passed away in 1993.

MAKING THE MOST OF RETIREMENT

The February 19 meeting of the Making the Most of Retirement special interest group features Mr. Kirk Mittelstet, director of emergency operations for the City of Stillwater. The meeting, which begins at 1:30, will be held in the 3rd floor reception area of the Stillwater Public Library. Kirk's topic is entitled "Preparing for the Severe Weather Season."

The March 19 meeting features Dr. Sisyy Osteen who will be presenting tips to avoid identity theft.

On January 16, approximately 40 individuals toured the new Primrose Retirement Community in southwest Stillwater. Dr. Joe Alexander, a member of the OSU Emeriti Association, is the executive director of this beautiful new facility.

Please let Zane Quible know if you are interested in joining this group or if you have questions. 377-4435 or zane.quible@okstate.edu

NEW OSU EMERITI ASSOCIATION WEB SITE LAUNCHED

The new OSU Emeriti Association Web site was recently launched and can be accessed using the following URL: <http://emeriti.emeriti.okstate.edu>. The content of the new Web site will be updated regularly. Any member who has suggestions for updating the content should contact either Adeana Sallee (adeana.sallee@okstate.edu) or Zane Quible (zane.quible@okstate.edu).

The OSU Emeriti Association wishes to acknowledge the significant role of two individuals in the development of this new Web site: Dr. Brenda Masters, who currently serves as Interim Associate Provost and Associate VP for Undergraduate Studies, and Abharpanchal Panchal, a graduate assistant in the Provost's Office, who was the Web designer. Abharpanchal is working on a master's degree in Management Information Systems.
