Consider Forming a Discussion Group

The discussion group program, which began last year, is in need of volunteers who are interested in forming a discussion group on a topic of interest to other members. Topic possibilities are wide ranging and can be related to an area about which you taught, a hobby, an area of interest, such as current events, politics, religion, etc. Several discussion groups have completed their work, and one group continues. The OSU Emeriti Association Web page <http://emeriti.okstate.edu> more specific information about forming a group.
