Day Trip to Pawhuska

Lunch at the Pioneer Woman's Mercantile and Tour of the Cathedral of the Osage
Tuesday, April 11, 2017 Reservations due March 10

If you have never visited Pawhuska you won't want to miss this trip. The town, originally known as Deep Ford, was established in 1872 in Indian Territory with the reservation for the Osage Nation.

While there are too many sites to see to fit them all in a single day, the tour will feature lunch at the Pioneer Woman's Mercantile and a tour of the Cathedral of the Osage.

Just opened late in 2016, The Pioneer Woman Mercantile is a retail store that includes a bakery, deli, and general store located in a 100 year old downtown Pawhuska building in the heart of Osage County. The Pioneer Woman, of course, is the famous Ree Drummond, best-selling author, food writer, photographer and television personality, who lives on a working ranch just outside of town.

Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, aka The Cathedral of the Osage, was built in 1910 as the principle church of the Osage tribe. It features stained glass windows imported from Munich, Germany. The transept windows measure 36 feet tall. Windows feature Jesuit Father John Shoemaker with the Osage who are in traditional attire and Christopher Columbus's first encounter with Native Americans plus many depictions from the Bible. Added to the National Register in 1979, this is a site you won't forget.

Make your reservation today by calling Jack and Jody Stout at 405-372-6966. And mail your check for $79.00, made payable to Kaleo Tours, to the Stouts at 400 N. Sangre Bend, Stillwater 74075. As usual cancellation protection is available in case of medical emergency or an act of God for an additional $3.95.

We will depart the OSU Library Annex at 8:30 a.m. Parking permits required. Let the Stouts know if you need a permit.

Emeriti Ambassadors - An Opportunity for You

Emeriti Ambassadors assist the Alumni Association with special events such as the upcoming commencement ceremonies. There will be 4 graduation sessions this semester and more Emeriti Ambassadors are needed. Please volunteer by contacting Russ Wright.

OSU Library Database Trouble

We have just learned through the Faculty Committee (Barbara Miller is our representative) that a few faculty were entered incorrectly in the new Banner system. This causes problems accessing the Library's databases. This error was fairly limited in scope, but if you are having problems accessing the Library Databases, please contact Nicole Sump-Crethar in the Library and she can correct the error.
